(57) CLAIM

The ornamental design for a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

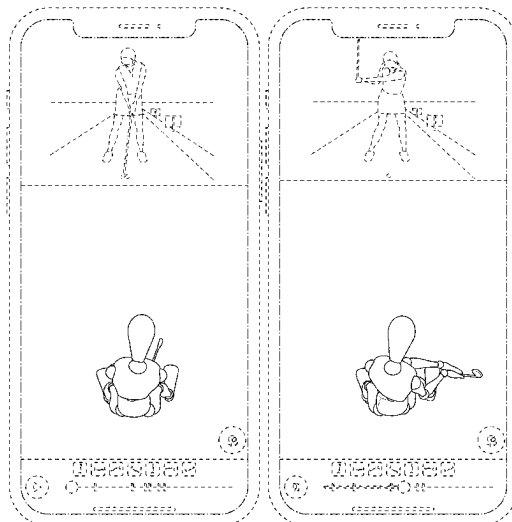

FIG. 1 is a view of a first image of a sequence on a display screen with transitional graphical user interface, according to the embodiment of the claimed design;

FIG. 2 is a view of a second image of the sequence thereof; and,

FIG. 3 is a view of a third image of the sequence thereof. The dash-dash broken lines in the drawings are included for the purpose of illustrating the unclaimed environment of the design (e.g., a mobile/electronic device), or the unclaimed article of manufacture (e.g., the display screen/panel), such as the edge of the device comprising the display screen, physical buttons on the outer edge of the device, virtual or physical items on the display screen, or portions of the graphical user interface. The dash-dot-dash broken lines in the drawings are included for the purpose of illustrating the unclaimed article of manufacture, such as the edge of the display screen. The dash-dash broken lines and dash-dot-dash broken lines form no part of the claimed design.

FIGS. 1-3 illustrate an embodiment of a display screen with transitional graphical user interface having the claimed design. The process or period in which one image transitions to another image forms no part of the claimed design.
