CLAIM

The ornamental design for a medical implant as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top left perspective view of a first embodiment of a medical implant showing our new design; FIG. 2 is a bottom right perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 3 is a top plan view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 4 is a front side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 5 is a right side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 6 is a left side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 7 is a rear side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 8 is an exploded top left perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 9 is an exploded bottom right perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 1; FIG. 10 is a top left perspective view of a second embodiment of a medical implant showing our new design; FIG. 11 is a bottom right perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 12 is a top plan view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 13 is a front side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 14 is a right side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 15 is a left side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 16 is a rear side elevational view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; FIG. 17 is an exploded top left perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 10; and, FIG. 18 is an exploded bottom right perspective view of the medical implant of FIG. 10.

The current application is directed to a medical implant for use in soft tissue grafting. The medical implant comprises a threaded screw and a cap with a threaded screw-receiving hole, as shown in the exploded views of the first embodiment in FIGS. 8 and 9, and in the exploded views of the second embodiment in FIGS. 17 and 18. The claim is directed to the collective appearance of the cap and the screw.
