The ornamental design for a garment as shown and described.

DESCRIPTION

FIG. 1 is a top perspective view of one embodiment of a garment comprising a new, original and ornamental design, in a first example use configuration;

FIG. 2 is a top view of a surface of the garment shown in FIG. 1, flattened and viewed looking away from what would be the wearer's body centerline, out of the first example use configuration;

FIG. 3 is a top view of a surface of the garment shown in FIG. 1, flattened and viewed looking toward what would be the wearer's body centerline, out of the first example use configuration;

FIG. 4 is a side view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, taken along the plane of the page from top-toward-bottom in the orientation of FIG. 2, out of the first example use configuration;

FIG. 5 is a side view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, taken along the plane of the page from bottom-toward-top in the orientation of FIG. 2, out of the first example use configuration;

FIG. 7 is a side view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, taken along the plane of the page from right-toward-left in the orientation of FIG. 2, out of the first example use configuration;

FIG. 8 is a side view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration and viewed looking away from a wearer's body centerline;

FIG. 9 is a side view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration and viewed looking toward the wearer's body centerline;

FIG. 10 is a front view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration;

FIG. 11 is a rear view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration;

FIG. 12 is a top view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration;

FIG. 13 is a bottom view of the garment shown in FIG. 1, in the first example use configuration;

FIG. 14 is a top perspective view of one embodiment of a garment comprising a new, original and ornamental design, in a second example use configuration;

FIG. 15 is a top view of a surface of the garment shown in FIG. 14, flattened and viewed looking away from what would be the wearer's body centerline, out of the second example use configuration;

FIG. 16 is a top view of a surface of the garment shown in FIG. 14, flattened and viewed looking toward what would be the wearer's body centerline, out of the second example use configuration;

The dashed broken line showing of certain structures in the drawings is for the purpose of illustrating optional features and forms no part of the claimed design. For example, the small circle in the ankle area of the user and the parallel straight lines located near the inner and outer arch of the foot of the user in each Figure form no part of the claimed design. The dash-dot broken line showing of the foot, ankle, and leg of a user in the drawings is for the purpose of illustrating an example environmental structure and forms no part of the claimed design.
